DETAILED ACTION

1. The amendments and arguments of 12 August 2005 are convincing.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1, 16, 23, 27 are allowable.
3. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

As per Claim 1, 23, 27.

The prior art of record, specifically Moore ('454), Gardner Jr ('537) and Rutkowski et al ('270) and Koropitzer et al ('323) does not disclose or fairly teach:

receiving collected data related to the service being provided by the one or more field service providers, wherein the collected data is business data associated with a specific customer account for which the service is being provided;

determining whether the collected data indicates a time-critical situation associated with the specific customer account;

responsive to the operation of mapping the data conclusion to time-critical advisory information, presenting the time-critical advisory information to the management system;

receiving an instruction from the management system to present the time-critical advisory information to the field service provider; and presenting the time-critical advisory information to the field service provider.

As per Claim 16.

The prior art of record, specifically Moore ('454), Gardner Jr ('537) and Rutkowski et al ('270) and Koropitzer et al ('323) does not disclose or fairly teach:

means for receiving collected data related to the service being provided by the one or more field service providers, wherein the collected data is business data associated with a specific customer account for which the service is being provided;

means for analyzing the collected data to determine whether the collected data indicates a time-critical situation associated with the specific customer account;

means for mapping the data conclusion to time-critical advisory information, presenting the time-critical advisory information to the management system;

means for presenting the time-critical advisory information to the field service provider.

The claims that depend from the above allowable claims are allowable for the same reasons.
